Indiantown Cemetery (2)

Frederic Mentzer and his wife Christina (Snyder) are buried here, as well as his sister, Veronia, who was married to Mathias Druckenbrod (Drybread).

A lane 6 ft. wide and 83 ft long leads from the public road to this small cemetery in Indiantown. The deed for this lane, dated 1898, is from Rebecca Wiest to Lewis Hahnly and Adam Oberlin. Deed book J No. 15, page 452, June 1898 - Lancaster County Courthouse. There is also a release of dower right - deed from H. C. (Clayton) Oberlin, Birdsboro, Pa.